The University of Virginia.

On Monday night, the celebration of the Washington Society took place. There was a very full house. The Medal for the best debater was received by the Medalist Mr. S. M.
Wynn of Georgia, with a short and appropriate speech. Mr. Harris, President of the Washington Society then introduced the orator, Mr. Samuel McKimney, of Tennessee, who delivered one of the best speeches heard from any young man at the University for a long time. His subject was "Social Development."

The address of General Preston delivered at the united request of the two Literary Societies, on Tuesday, was one of the happiest of his efforts and received with great applause.

South Carolina was well represented on the occasion, for on the platform, besides the orator, there was another one of her noble sons, whose face is not soon forgotten, the gallant Wade Hampton. His appearance was welcomed by loud and continued cheering.

At night the Jefferson Society held their final celebration. The medal was presented to Mr. E. A. Dunnean, of West Virginia, for being the best debater. The presentation and receipt were followed by the presentation of the medal for the best contributor to the "University Magazine," which was conferred upon Mr.
A. M. Miller, of Petersburg, Va. Mr. Miller has been particularly fortunate at this session —for besides this compliment to his ability, he has received the degree of A. M., and also the prizes in the classes of moral philosophy and political economy.

After which the final oration was pronounced by Mr. W. T. Bartlett of Western Virginia—the delivery of which was creditable to its author and the society he represented. After this celebration as on the previous evening the houses of the Professors were opened for receptions.

Wednesday was, however, the great day in this series of celebrations, when the Jefferson Statue was inaugurated. Mr. B. J. Barbour, the Rector of the University, made a short speech, eloquent and appropriate, during which the Statue was unveiled. In conclusion he introduced to the audience Mr. Hugh Blair Grigsby, the orator of the occasion.

It is to be regretted that Mr. Grigsby's health was too feeble to allow him to deliver his address, and he was compelled to read it from his chair, even then omitting some portions of it. His voice was so weak that he could not be heard, except by those immediately around him.

He gave a sketch of Mr. Jefferson as a man, and a Statesman, and especially of his relations to the University, as its founder, winding up with a history of the Statue just inaugurated and an eloquent tribute to the sculptor, the lamented Galt, who, snatched away at the beginning of his promising career, was thus prevented by the decree of an inscrutable providence from being the witness of this triumph of his genius.

The Statue is very fine, showing in the minutest details the hand of the master, of the purest white marble, and remarkably perfect as a likeness. The exercises closed yesterday with delivery of the diplomas and the address of Col. Charles Marshall of Baltimore, before the Alumni. The close of the session of 1867-8, must be long remembered by all visitors as being noted for the most brilliant celebration in the history of the University. Fine speeches, beautiful ladies, and good music, almost without limit, ought to be enough to satisfy the most fastidious taste.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The current of emigration from Germany to the United States, always large, is now expanding into almost startling proportions. It appears that from January 1 to June, the number of emigrants who started for the United States by way of Bremen was more than 27,000. In addition to this, nine steamers were advertised in the beginning of June to sail from Bremen for New York and Baltimore, which would bring over, it was anticipated, seven thousand more immigrants.

An examination of the personal effects of the late Dr. Vanderveer, of Somerset county, N. J., brought to light money and valuable papers amounting in all to $239,000, strewn about with apparently great carelessness. Six different wills were found, in addition to one under which claim had already been made, and a legal battle over the estate is to begin early in July.

The property of the late ex-President Buchanan has been appraised at $330,582, including $50,000 in real estate and $8,307 on deposit with the Bankers in London. The principal portion of his estate consists of State and railroad bonds. It is stated that Mr. B., within the last few years, gave away to his relations from $50,000 to $90,000.

A cargo of 10,000 buffalo robes, 8,000 wolf skins, and a large number of deer, elk, antelope, beaver, mink and other skins, valued at $75,000, has arrived in San Francisco from the Upper Missouri. Buffalo are very plenty this season, and all kinds of furs and peltries better than ever before known.

Gen. Grant has issued a special order directing that a general court-martial be convened at Fortress Monroe on the 1st of July, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the trial of such prisoners as may be brought before it.

Mr. Thaddeus Stevens yesterday spoke for fifteen minutes in favor of the Alaska purchase appropriation. His voice was full and clear and easily heard in all parts of the hall. He seems to be mending.

A number of colored laborers in Wilmington, N. C., undertook to "strike," the other day. Their places were immediately supplied by white men who do the work quicker and better, and don't "strike."

The two lawyers who defended Maximilian are the recipients of magnificent services of silver, valued at $24,000, from the members of the Austrian Imperial family.

An indignant father horsewhipped, on Broadway, N. Y., at midday Saturday, a scamp who had retailed scandal about his daughters.

CHANGE OF PROPRIETORS.

Having recently assumed the proprietorship of this old and fashionable watering-place, and completed our arrangements for the entertain-of the public. Every effort has been made to restore to this establishment its former reputation. The remedial properties of the waters have been sufficiently attested in the numbers who have been relieved of Rheumatism, Gouty and other affections, while the luxury of the Baths, when once enjoyed, can never be forgotten. Persons desirous to have full information concerning the character of the waters may consult our circular, which will be sent to them, on application, free of postage.

The route to the Warm Springs is by Richmond and Staunton to Millboro' depot, on the Virginia Central railroad, where a line of stages connects with the trains, enabling passengers
